Ms. Goulette,

While you reached out to us after we already completed preparing the motion to compel and seek sanctions against you, we will delay filing it based on your representation that you will appear at, and sit through the remainder of your deposition until it is completed. Contrary to your representation that you were "under the impression that the deposition had ended," I specifically stated on the record that we would be taking a 20 minute break until 4pm CT, and you agreed to that duration for a break. In fact, you left your Zoom link live and video of your office continued to remain on. The word "break" is in the deposition transcript, and the video of your deposition.

Further, even if you had some unexplained misunderstanding of the word "break," when you did not return, we waited on Zoom for you for over an hour until after 5pm CT. During this time, we called your cell phone at least four times (at the cell phone number you had been using to communicate with our office for the entire day). We also sent you at least three emails. You did not respond to the calls or the emails, and the email from you below is the first we have heard from you in over a month.

That said, since you have agreed to continue your deposition, we will give you one more opportunity to appear and comply with the deposition notice, before we file the motion and seek sanctions. Please confirm if you are available to sit for your deposition on any one of these days: January 13, 15, 20, 21, 28, and 29. Please confirm the date and time by no later than 6:00 PM CT on Monday, January 11, 2021. If we do not hear from you by then, we will file the motion.

Thank you,
Cheryl

Dear Ms. Cheryl:

Many apologies, however; I was under the impression that the deposition had ended. I do not recall any word about a "break."

Please go ahead and let me know when we can proceed and I will make myself available.

I was quite ill for the days upcoming to the deposition and on a few antibiotics. I may have misunderstood as I am not used to taking any sort of medication.

I am more than willing to assist.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Sandy
